Mar 7, 2020 - Tenorshare 4uKey Password Manager 1.3.2.4 Crack + Latest Registration Code + Serial Number Download Financial-sector jobs boom even as jobs in sectors such as health care fail The U.S. financial sector has added jobs at a quicker pace than it has in decades, while the country's other jobs sector, including health care, saw little growth over the past year, according to a report released Thursday. The U.S. is still lagging behind Europe in creating jobs overall. Still, the February report for the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics found that while the overall U.S. unemployment rate rose to 10.2 percent from 9.8 percent in January, the nation added 235,000 jobs. Financial-sector jobs accounted for 22 percent of the jobs added, and financial-services employment grew by 28,000 or more positions, according to the bureau's report. The lion's share of the jobs added were in the private sector, which added 204,000 positions, followed by the public sector with 7,000 jobs. Job numbers have been mixed over the past year, with the unemployment rate rising to 10.2 percent from 9.8 percent in December 2012. But December jobs, released Tuesday, showed that employers added 134,000 jobs. The key figure is the labor force, which includes people who are either employed or seeking employment. As of December, the labor force was 153.3 million people, compared to 161.5 million in September, 2012. The labor force grew by 0.8 million people, compared to a 0.8 million gain over the prior 12 months. More people entered the labor force in
