But sometimes all that's needed is to be reminded of the FAQs. Is it time to create a special FAQ page on the site, e.g. for new/prospective users? A: I made a pretty long list of "FAQ's" that I think can be mentioned a bit more often. They are: What kind of questions can I ask here? How should I ask a good question? What should I do when my question doesn't get answered? What is the fastest way to get started? What do I do when my question gets closed or deleted? What should I do when I think the question is bad? When should I flag questions for moderator attention? What are "low quality posts" and what can I do? These are mostly repeating the respective "FAQ" entries, I could use some help to clean it up, or maybe even expand it a bit. A: Great idea. The actual list is so long, having more links in the same list would be useful. However, these links usually aren't linked to in any of the current answers, so I guess we could come up with
