Radio In Transit (RIT) is a program of the San Diego Airport Police Department. RIT officers are part of the tactical aviation team and provide emergency response services for aircraft and personal aircraft at the San Diego International Airport. San Diego International is the fourth busiest airport in the country and the first in the western United States. We ask for your help in moving this important program forward. Please contact us at sdapd@sairport.org to report violations or if you find any suspicious activity. We will be happy to provide you with details and provide you with an ID number, if desired.

Thank you for helping us to Make All Skies Blue! Possible redox crosstalk between peroxiredoxin-1 and myocardial ischemia/reperfusion injury. Peroxiredoxin-1 (Prx-1) is an abundant, 32 kDa thioredoxin-dependent protein expressed in all mammalian cells. Prx-1 is a potent hydrogen peroxide scavenger and protects cells from oxidative damage in various pathophysiological conditions. Here, we investigate the role of Prx-1 in myocardial ischemia/reperfusion injury (IRI) induced by ischemia in an ex vivo Langendorff-perfused
